Hinder

When I'm down, something picks me up to fall down again
Is there a point to get ahead and the fall just wasn't the end?
Take advantage of me, so you can better yourself
I didn't realise it, but now I'm by myself again

I'm by myself again, torn apart again
Well, nothing seems to paste me together
I'm all alone again, well I'm empty again
Well, nothing seems to paste me together

I still don't know what I will do
To stop the madness of me coming undo
Well, paste me together so that I can see
A whole lot further than just, well just in front of me

I'm by myself again, torn apart again
Well, nothing seems to paste me together (paste me)
I'm all alone again, well I'm empty again
Well, nothing seems to fill me up and paste me together

Paste me together (2x)

Paste me together so I can see
A whole lot further than just, well just in front of me

I'm by myself again, torn to shreds again
Well, nothing seems to paste me together (paste me)
I'm all alone again, well I'm empty again
Well, nothing seems to fill me up and paste me together

Paste me together (2x)
