Shoulda Known Better

Hinder

Woke up but you're back in my bed,
We broke up, how'd this happen again?
I always end up lettin' you in,
When I start drinkin' not thinkin'

I should've listened to all of my friends,
Same road and the same dead end,
I'm lovin' while she pretends,
So I keep drinkin' not thinkin'

First love is hard enough,
Even worse to give it up,
I can't forget her when she's gone,
But she can't leave when I'm holdin' on

So what can I say?
I made a mistake this time, you'll never change
You're nothin' but trouble and I should've known better
It's always the same,
I'll take the blame this time, I'll never change
You're nothin' but trouble and I should've known better
Girl, you're nothin' but trouble and I should've known better.

Every time that I start to forget
I drive by the spot where we first met
You had nothin' on underneath that dress,
We were just drinkin' not thinkin'

Just two kids, it was way too soon,
We didn't realize what we had to lose,
No way to know we wouldn't make it through,
Didn't know we'd end up sinking

First love is hard enough,
Even worse to give it up,
I can't forget her when she's gone,
But she can't leave when I'm holdin' on

So what can I say?
I made a mistake this time, you'll never change
You're nothin' but trouble and I should've known better
It's always the same,
I'll take the blame this time, I'll never change
You're nothin' but trouble and I should've known better

Keep leaving me with nothin'
Someday I'll learn my lesson
Right now I'm losing this fight oh, oh
Lust ain't the same as trusting,
Can't figure out this love thing,
Guess it ain't happening tonight oh, oh

So what can I say?
I made a mistake this time, you'll never change
You're nothin' but trouble and I should've known better
It's always the same,
I'll take the blame this time, I'll never change

You're nothin' but trouble and I should've known better
Girl, I should've known better
