

Waiting For You

Hinds

Baby

I hate the feeling when you're next to me
I don't know why you crave the mystery
Everything in between you and me

It's dark and kinda late to be falling apart
I wanna serenade you in the park
Can you shut up?
Me and you, let's make some art

I hope you like it better by yourself
You're always chasing, chasing something else
Me, I don't know why you haven't gone away

I gave you time in crowded places
Gave you love in empty spaces
Waiting for you, always for you
All of me, wish I could take it
Half of me, thought I could save it
Waiting for you, always for you

Hey

Don't you forget the things you used you say
Now all around us feels so goddamn fake, so goddamn fake
Me and you. I'll get the check

I hope you like it better by yourself, 'cause
You're always chasing, chasing something else
Yeah, I don't know why you haven't gone away

I gave you time in crowded places
Gave you love in empty spaces
Waiting for you, always for you
All of me, wish I could take it
Half of me, thought I could save it
Waiting for you, always for you

I gave you time
I gave you love
Waiting for you, always

All of me, wish I could take it
Half of me, thought I could save it
Waiting for you, always for you
Waiting for you, always
