

Chapstick

Hippo Campus

I felt my face lifting
You saw my feet through the door
You saw my lips split
I could not feel a thing
You shared your chapstick
You share your lipstick now
As we rest on
The dirty kitchen floor
They try to sweep us
Into the cracks in the walls
We use our chapstick
To share the love we trust

To share the love we trust
To share the love we trust

At the drugstore
You told me everything
You said there's good news
I said there's no such thing
You said you're certain
I said there's no way out
Pulled out your chapstick
It's all too real right now

I felt my heart speak now
La-la-la, la-la-la, la-la la-la
I said there's no way out
La-la-la, la-la-la, la-la la-la
It's all too real right now
La-la-la, la-la-la, la-la la-la
It's all too real right now

(And) All I know
Is my body's tired
Is this all for show?
Am I required/My lonely choir

It's all too real right now
La-la-la, la-la-la, la-la la-la
I felt my heart speak now
La-la-la, la-la-la, la-la la-la
I said there's no way out
La-la-la, la-la-la, la-la la-la
It's all too real right now
