

I couldn't feel it without seeming like
I'm swollen, choking on the view
Sitting still eyes glued to my mind
I've lost

Let me out, sterilize that
Get bent like you'll never feel the kick back
Shhh Johnny, we'll just kick it with the knee pads
Got me out, got me feeling like a fleabag

Hard pressed for a dub this time
Madness like it's peace of mind

So now I'm freezing and freaking and
I'm sneaking out so I can get a little bit of warm in
It doesn't matter cause I'm looking at my phone and I don't realize that I'm missing out on everything I wanted

I see you hanging with sad man
Vanity
I saw it like I called it and we left it there as enemies
I rolled a blunt while you coughed up a memory
Now everybody's mumbling there stuck fucked up about it

Act up like it's not enough
Bite down 'til your drawing blood
Bitching when you don't find love
Rude boy pushing his luck

Act up like it's not enough
Bite down 'til your drawing blood
Bitching when you don't find love
Rude boy pushing his luck

Making peace with my exes, think I kind of missed this
Maybe it's a waste of time
Shit, thanks a million, think I'm going to kill this Think I'm going to lose my mind
Catch me on the way up, gonna need a seance
Gotta get a grip this time
Turn the click on baby, baby turn the click on
I know you wouldn't waste my time

Act up like it's not enough
Bite down 'til your drawing blood
Botching when you don't find love
Rude boy pushing his luck

Act up like it's not enough
Bite down 'til your drawing blood
Botching when you don't find love
Rude boy pushing his luck
