

DADS BED

Hobo Johnson

One day you'll lose your father in a similar fashion
It'll take a couple months and then suddenly happen
My heart goes out to the parents in the IC
Who have to hear their kids cry staring at the IV

When I close my eyes when laying in my dad's bed
Sometimes I want to die just so I can see my best friend
Me, my mom, my sister, we've been taking it tough
The photos on the walls they just aren't enough
When I close my eyes when laying in my dad's room
Sometimes I want to die just so I can see my dad soon
Me, my mom, my sister, be taking it tough
Words can't describe but you can feel in a month

I said when I close my eyes laying in my dad's bed
I want to die just so I can see my best friend
Me, my mom, my sister, be taking it tough
Photos on the walls they just aren't enough
When I close my eyes from laying in my dad's room
Sometimes I want to die just so I can see my dad soon
Me, my mom, my sister, be taking it tough
Words can't describe what you can feel in a month

One day you'll lose your father in a similar fashion
It'll take two months and then suddenly happen
My heart goes out to you and, you know why
You have to live life till you die with the same eyes
When I close mine, when laying in my dad's bed
Sometimes the room spins
I think I'm about to puke next
Me, my mom, my sister, we wish you the best
Words ain't enough but it's all that you get cause'
When you close your eyes
When you're laying in your dad's bed I hope you feel better
I hope you take a deep breath
Every human being has felt something like this
Stomach on the floor and your heart and your rose
When you close your eyes when, laying in your dad's bed
I'll say a prayer from the heart that I have left
Every human being has felt something like this
The urge to want to just give up and quit cause'

When I close my eyes from laying in my dad's bed
I want to die just so I can see my best friend
Me, my mom, my sister, been taking it tough
Words can't describe but you can feel in a month
I said, when I close my eyes when laying in my dad's room
Sometimes I want to die just so I can see my dad soon
Me, my mom, my sister, be taking it tough
Words can't describe what you can-

When you close your eyes when, laying in your dad's bed
I'll say a prayer from the heart that I have left
Every human being has felt something like this
The urge to want to just give up and quit cause'
You close your eyes when you're laying in your dad's bed
I hope you feel better

I hope you take a deep breath
Every human being has felt something like this
The urge to want to just give up and quit cause'

I close my eyes from laying in my dad's bed
I want to die just so I can see my best friend
Me, my mom, my sister, been taking it tough
Words can't describe but you can feel in a month
When I close my eyes when laying in my dad's bed
I hope you feel better
I hope you take a deep breath
Every human being has felt something like this
The urge to want to just give up and quit
