Yeah
Peter, Peter

Her name is Dari*, she's a girl
And she ruled my world with an iron fist and perky tits
I'm amazed at how the fuck we fucking fit
Holy shit, you're an angel, you're not a fucking ****
I really want to talk on the phone in the meantime
I'ma think about whether if it's really healthy instead
Your family's like my family so it just doesn't feel right
Ninety-three miles away from your bed

San Francisco's lonely as that bridge in that bay is
And all the poor people who stare down at the waves
If only they could have someone like you in Sacs still
They'd stay at their small sad apartment today
I really want to talk whenever you get time (I said)
I said I really want to talk whenever I get fine

Her name is Dari*, she's a gir*
And she ruled my world with an iron fist and thoughtfulness
I've never seen something quite like this, I mean I quite like this
I mean I quite like this

If only they could have someone like you in Sacs still They'd stay at their small sad apartment today, like this

And I don't really know what to tell you, P
I hope your new boyfriend is everything you need
I hope he's honest and smart and kind
And doesn't drink just to finish his night

I'm gonna go cry for the rest of my life now
When I start, I'm never sure that I'll stop
I'd trade this whole life for dinner at my dad's house
You should come, we'll cook whatever you want
And I could see you too, like you're here in this bedroom
I could see your smiles like they're burning my brain
I'm so glad that both of us got to know you
I'm sorry you had to share all that pain

This place is fucking lonely, everybody just walks by
I do my best to try and smile like them
They remind me of the life I had before I lost my Beautiful partners, both of my best friends

I just want to talk whenever I get fine
I just want to talk whenever I get fine
