

Auf der Flucht

Hocico

The sun goes down, the bullets fall like rain
My spirit's scattered, I see pieces of my brain
The bombs drop down, the kill my family
While you seat down to watch it on TV

We are nothing, we are no one, we are part of this show
'Cause our life's are useless to the business of war
We are nothing, we are no one, our names are just dust
Flying over Europe to a river of trust

When Daddy's away, the kids will play
Longing for paradise we found this place
You prefer to ignore who we really are
We're not refugees, we're your stars!

The road is long with shameless hope
I dare you to cast the first stone
Inside my heart there's a place to live
'Cause on this world I have no right to breath!

We are nothing, we are no one, we are part of this show
'Cause our life's are useless to the business of war
We are nothing, we are no one, our names are just dust
Flying over Europe to a river of trust

When Daddy's away, the kids will play
Longing for paradise we found this place
You prefer to ignore who we really are
We're not refugees, we're your stars!

Auf der Flucht, ich bin auf der Flucht!

Before the song ends I will be dead
I have no more tears, no more words in my head
I'm empty, I'm lonely but the fear is the key
I'll walk just as far as these feet carry me

Auf der Flucht, ich bin auf der Flucht!
