

Cross the Line

Hocico

You better watch out when demons awake
You better watch out when devils play
You've been talking too much behind my back
You fucking scum
You're such a shame, you're such a shame
I'm ready to burn your world inside
You've been a waste of time
I'll set your world in flames tonight

I'm sick of all your lies
I'm sick of your whining

Tomorrow's a new day
I won't tolerate, too much bullshit's enough
I'm always ready to bite
I fight fire with fire
I'll set your world in flames

You crossed the fucking line
You're on the dark side
Here I'm in control
Head against the wall
You crossed the fucking line
The end of your life
You better shut up now
Just fuck you, fuck you

[Instrumental Break]

You crossed the fucking line
You're on the dark side
Here I'm in control
Head against the wall
You crossed the fucking line
The end of your life
You better shut up now
Just fuck you, fuck you

I'm sick of all your lies
I'm sick of your whining
I'm sick of all your lies
I'm sick of your whining

You crossed the fucking line
You're on the dark side
Here I'm in control
Head against the wall
You crossed the fucking line
The end of your life
You better shut up now
Just fuck you, fuck you

Fuck you
Now fuck you
Now fuck you
Fuck you
Now fuck you

Tomorrow's a new day

You crossed the fucking line
Here I'm in control
The end of your life

Fuck you
Fuck, fuck, fuck you
Now fuck you
Fuck, fuck, fuck you

I'm sick of all your lies
I'm sick of your whining
