Sad Scorn

Hocico

Human reason doesn't exist empty bodies, empty minds damned mankind can't resist anymore all these diseases spread over the world.

Mentally hasn't changed sadness is marked on their face how can people be different? the answer doesn't exist.

The rules have broken men eat men the hunger of their souls can't be satisfied.

Looking for power, quieting the weak killing life.

All of them were born deaf and dumb closed minds.

Sadness and desolation have been always in their hearts.

Human community has created an empire of hate and pride.

Poor mankind they are wrong. Poor mankind they are alone.
