

Many Oceans

Hoku

Many oceans You have split apart before me
Countless are the ways You've made
Many wonders You are quietly unfolding
Endless is Your patient grace

Oh Your love is deep, deeper than my dearest longings
Oh and wider than my greatest fears

When I've gone far as I can go (oh)
When miles ahead give way to no where to be found
You defy the laws of heaven and of earth to help me
You defy the laws of earth to make a way for me
Through many oceans
Many oceans, You've made a way for me
Many oceans, You've made a way for me

Many oceans You have settled into silence
Countless are the ways You've made
Roaring waters You quiet with a whisper
You are tender as Your love is great

Oh Your love is wide, mightier than many rivers

And You are mine, You are mine

When I've gone far as I can go (oh)
When miles ahead give way to no where to be found
You defy the laws of heaven and of earth to help me
You defy the laws of earth to make a way for me
Through many oceans
Many oceans, You've made a way for me
Many oceans, You've made a way for me

Oh ... You made a way for me
Oh ... You made a way for me

When I've gone far as I can go (oh)
When miles ahead give way to no where to be found
You defy the laws of heaven and of earth to help me
You defy the laws of earth to make a way for me
Through many oceans
Many oceans, You've made a way for me
Many oceans, You've made a way for me
