

Honey Moon

Holding Absence

Miles high
In the sky
So why do I
Feel low tonight?
I orbit out
Of control
All alone

Honey, all I see is you
Dressed in the moon
And I know
If we can ever set together
Like constellations
We can live forever

Now, every night
You and I
Intertwine
Like satellites
Trying to hold
Our pilgrim souls
Somewhere close

Honey, all I see is you
Dressed in the moon
And I know
If we can ever set together
Like constellations
We can life forever

Honey, all I see is you
Dressed in the moon
