

Adrift

Hollow Coves

Lately, I've been contemplating all that's in my head
Trying to understand if all these thoughts can make sense
Feels as if my flaws have pulled me further than I thought
Lost out in the ocean, far from the shore

Can you pull me in,
Back to shore again?

Compromised by changing tides, the ship has left its course
Seeking for a distant light to guide us back to port
Is there any simple way for us to go?
Tangled up in the motion, swaying back and forth

Can you pull me in,
Back to shore again?
Can you pull me in,
Back to shore again?

Can you pull me in,
Back to shore again?
Can you pull me in,
Back to shore again?

Can you pull me in,
Back to shore again?
Can you pull me in,
Back to shore again?
