

Letting Go

Hollow Coves

I'm coming home now, a change of season
I feel it's time to leave everything behind us
I miss the ocean, a place of healing
I miss the way that place would make me feel inside

This life's a journey, it's made me who I am
So let's embrace it and turn the page, my friend
I don't regret it, it opened up my world
I'm starting over, back where I belong

Now I'm home I feel like I'm letting go
I know I needed change
'Cause now I'm home I feel like I'm moving on
With time I hope you'll feel the same

I'm coming home now, down the highway
This town I thought I'd stay in never felt the same
The sun is shining, it's what I needed
It's taken me some years but now I'm on my way

Now I'm home I feel like I'm letting go
I know I needed change
'Cause now I'm home I feel like I'm moving on
With time I hope you'll feel the same

Now I'm home I feel like I'm letting go
I know I needed change
'Cause now I'm home I feel like I'm moving on
With time I hope you'll feel the same

I'm coming home now, a change of season
I'm starting over, it's what I needed
