

Hold Me Down

Hollow Front

We are not the same
There's nothing left to gain
I'm not ashamed
Not ashamed to feel this everyday
We are not the same
You are the ones to blame
I'm not ashamed
In the end we all die anyway

Bring me down to your level of deception
Choke what's good from me until I can't feel
Swallowed whole by consistent rejection
Trauma I'll forever keep

Show me now (Show me now)
Show me what happens
When you've lost your heart?
Tell me how (Tell me how)
How you lost yourself

Will you hold me down
When I have faltered
Through the sound
Of my heartbeat racing
We are not the same
You are the ones to blame
I'm not ashamed
In the end we all die anyway
Hold me down when I have fallen

Like a snake
Here to poison all I've ever loved
You hide behind
The lies you've promised with our blood

Show me now (Show me now)
Show me what happens
When you've lost your heart?
Tell me how (Tell me how)
How you lost your sense of self

So lead me to the fountain of redemption
I've fallen so far down this hole I can't drink
Walking down this path of self destruction
Something I must do alone

Will you hold me down
When I have faltered
Through the sound
Of my heartbeat racing
We are not the same
You are the ones to blame
I'm not ashamed
Hold me down when I have fallen

You can forsake me

But you'll never get the chance to break me
A million reasons to give up with all I've lacked
The only way from the bottom is to fight back

You feast on innocence
I'll stand free from your lies
I'm still haunted by the effort you gave
To send my dream to it's grave

Coward fuck

We are not the same
You are the one to blame
I'm not ashamed
