

Serendipity

Hollow Front

We're running out of time
Lost souls from different planets
And yet our hearts are not aligned
Imprisoned by our own worst habits
I fell in love then I let it destroy me
I fell in love then I let it destroy me
I lost myself in you
When I thought I could control myself
Something I always do
I fell in love then I let it destroy me

I can't pretend I'm fine anymore
I've lost a part of me
You're drifting away
And I'll never be the same
Without you here

My guilt consumes me
And all I want is to say I'm sorry
For being empty
I hope someday we'll meet again, yeah

(Haunted by my mistakes)
(The only choice I could make)
There is a place deep inside my mind
That still believes that we can make it through
The right place, the wrong time and if fates decides
I hope it leads me back to you, back to you

I can't pretend I'm fine anymore
I've lost a part of me
You're drifting away
And I'll never be the same
Without you here

My guilt consumes me
And all I want is to say I'm sorry
For being empty
I hope someday we'll meet again
My guilt consumes me, consumes me
And all I want is to say I'm sorry
For being empty
I hope someday we'll meet again
