

Easy Tiger

Holly Humberstone

Well, I spent the whole of last week underwater
On occasion, I would surface from my room
Got a first-class view from right here in my fortress
Got a staring contest going with the moon

There's a bunch of purple lockets from my mother
They compliment the pile of dirty clothes
No wonder I've got five missed calls from Lauren
Guess it's her job to worry, I suppose

I get all dressed up
I get all dressed up for nothing
I get all messed up
I get all messed up for nothing
And you said

"Settle down now, easy tiger
It'll all be over soon
Mm, put your feet up on the dashboard
And we'll ride this out together, mm"
Ooh, ooh

There's a pep talk in a bathroom at the party
Between two dumb intoxicated girls
But I just wanna disappear completely tonight
Until I learn to function in this world

I get all dressed up
I get all dressed up for nothing (Nothing)
I get all messed up
I get all messed up for nothing

"Settle down now, easy tiger
It'll all be over soon
Mm, put your feet up on the dashboard
And we'll ride this out together, mm"

Let it all out, my dearest one
Let it all out, it's alright, my dearest
My dearest

I get all dressed up
I get all dressed up for nothing

"Settle down now, easy tiger
It'll all be over soon
Mm, put your feet up on the dashboard
And we'll ride this out together, mm"

"We'll ride this out together, mm
And we'll ride this out together, mm
And we'll ride this out"
