

I'm getting older, you're getting older
Never in touch, we gave up on that recently
Trash the hotel room, couldn't be closer
Making a mess ain't as fun as it used to be
Life can't always be one giant firework display
(I give up, I look back on those days)

Ooh, are you still a live wire?
Ooh, are you still starting fires?
We had our own kind of energy
Funny when you're right there next to me, trouble will find us
But now it's behind us

Falling from grace but I wouldn't change it
Maybe we took things just one little step too far
Coming home late and waking your neighbours
At least there'll be no more destruction now we're apart
Life can't always be one perfect walk in the park
(We grow up and we grow apart)

Ooh, are you still a live wire?
Ooh, are you still starting fires?
We had our own kind of energy
Funny when you're right there next to me, trouble will find us
But now it's behind us

Ooh, hope you're still alive, hope you're still a livewire, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, hope you're still alive, hope you're still a livewire, ooh
Ooh, ooh

Ooh, are you still a live wire?
Ooh, are you still starting fires?
We had our own kind of energy
Funny when you're right there next to me, trouble will find us
But now it's behind us
