

Scarlett

Holly Humberstone

You said, "darling, will we go the distance?" And such blissful ignorance couldn't hit more like a bolt from the blue
And hate me, if you're gonna hate me
But just say it plainly, with everything lately I just need the truth

(Looking back)
We go together like bad British weather on the one day I made plans
So go hell for leather and know that it's out of my hands
Go ahead now

'Cause I cried all the summer away
Ooh, you left me waiting on a heartbreak
I just cried all the summer away
Now I'm drunk and screaming your name
Ooh, ooh, ooh, and I will show myself out
Ooh, ooh, ooh, I know I adore you, I don't need you now

I said, "Darling, will we go the distance?"
As I stood there pouring my heart out with you just completely unfazed
And you said, "Scarlett, I don't need to be responsible for everything you're feeling
Your emotional grim reaper, I feel bad for you
I can't entertain these games, hate to rain on your parade
It's just the way I'm feeling
It's just the way I'm feeling"

'Cause I cried all the summer away
Ooh, you left me waiting on a heartbreak
I just cried all the summer away
Now I'm drunk and screaming your name
Ooh, ooh, ooh, and I will show myself out
Ooh, ooh, ooh, I know I adore you, I don't need you now

I don't need you now

'Cause I cried all the summer away
Ooh, you left me waiting on a heartbreak
I just cried all the summer away
Now I'm drunk and screaming your name
Ooh, ooh, ooh, and I will show myself out
Ooh, ooh, ooh, I know I adore you, I don't need you now
