

Work In Progress

Holly Humberstone

If you're going down
I'll get my coat and stay out
Till the moon is sinking
And when you're coming up
I'll slide us home
All safe and stoned
I'll keep you cradled in the kitchen

Are you lost, my love?
Do you need someone like me to fix you up?
Are you lost enough?
'Cause I need someone who's tangled up

And if it's a work in progress
I'm thinking that I like you best
Just a little out of focus (Focus, focus, focus)
I know that you're incomplete
But that's why I'm on your street again
I'm loving this work in progress

If we're in your car
Can we stay parked there in the dark?
Can you show me how you're feeling
Through the speakers?
No, I won't freak out
No, I never doubted
We were both imperfect creatures

Will you open up?
Wanna bend the corners of my favorite page

'Cause if it's a work in progress
I'm thinking that I read you best
Just a little out of focus (Focus, focus), yeah
I know that you're incomplete
But that's why I'm at your feet again
I'm loving this work in progress

Da-da-da-da-die
Da-da-da-da, da-da-da-da-da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-die
Da-da-da-da, da-da-da-da-die
Da-da-da-da-die (Die-die-die)
Da-da-da-da, da-da-die-die-die-die-die
Da-da-da-da-die (Die-die-die)
Da-da-da-da, da-da-die-die-die

And if it's a work in progress
I'm thinking that I need the rest
