

Best Of Your Heart

Holly Macve

Last night I dreamt of you
You there by my side
I felt like I lost you again
When I woke, tears filled my eyes
It wasn't so long ago, we planned to run free
Lighting my cigarette, you said, "Honey, it's just you and me"

I know I'm not meant to call
But I'm lonely and I'm blue
I know we had good reasons to part
But tonight, I can only remember the best of your heart
Ooh, the best of your heart

(The best of, the best of)

Baby, I miss your smile, I took it for granted
But I wanted more from life and you wouldn't take any chances
So, baby, we're better off
Now our walls have been spun
But I never thought that our love could ever be undone

I know I'm not meant to call
But I'm lonely and I'm blue
I know we had good reasons to part
But tonight, I can only remember the best of your heart (The best of) Ooh, the best of your heart (The best of, the best of)

Ooh-oh, ooh (The best of)

I know I'm not meant to call
But I'm lonely and I'm blue
I know we had good reasons to part
But tonight, I can only remember the best of your heart (The best of)
Ooh, the best of your heart (Ooh; The best of, the best of)
