

A Love I Think Will Last

Holly Williams

This skinny country boy he caught my eye
I never could have guessed what I would find
He laughs about the boys I used to kiss
But I love him, yes I love him

That lanky city girl I could have died
You see I wanted her real bad but I was shy
Then she got me drunk and I gave up
And I love her, yes I love her

I finally found a love I think could last
He don't give a damn about my past
I got a boy who treats me like a queen,
like a king
I don't wanna wake up from this dream
I love you, yes I love you

He likes the way I look when I wake up
Even if my hair ain't found a brush
She hates it when I'm talking in my sleep
Even though I was asking her to marry me

I finally found a love I think could last
He don't give a damn about my past
I've got a girl who treats me like a king, like a queen
I don't want to wake up from this dream
I love you, yes I love you
Oh I love you, yes I love you

I finally found a love I think could last
He don't give a damn about my past
I've got a boy who treats me like a queen,
like a king
I don't want to wake up from this dream
I love you, yes I love you