

Aren't We All

Hollyn

Somehow, somewhere
Along the way
Somebody told me I was Worth something
Oh oh and I held that close
Oh and I held that close

Like canvases
Waiting for their paint
I sit still
Day after day
Oh oh
And nobody knows
Nobody knows

Lately I've been
Dreaming of what will become of me
Lately I've been
Dreaming, "What will become of me?"

But aren't we all?
Aren't we all?
Aren't we all?

The way I'm going
Seems to work
Then all a sudden
My flowers burn

Oh, but don't lose heart
Just keep going
You've got a lot to share with the world
Know in your heart, oh

Lately I've been
Dreaming of what will become of me
Lately I've been
Dreaming, "What will become of me?"

But aren't we all? (Aren't we all)
Aren't we all?
Aren't we all?

In the silence
Of potential
When everyone is screaming, "Strive!"
I have learned that
It is a wrestle
To suffocate your pride

In the silence
Of potential
When everyone is screaming, "Strive!"
I have learned that
It is a wrestle
To suffocate your pride

Aren't we all
Just trying to be the best
That we can be?
Wondering why we're here
Questioning everything

Lately I've been
Dreaming of what will become of me
I've been
Dreaming, "What will become of me?"

'Cause aren't we all?
Aren't we all?
Aren't we all?
Aren't we all?
Dreaming of what we could be?
Of what we see? What we could be?
Aren't we all?
Aren't we all?
Mmmm spread a little kindness
Show a little kindness
