

Clouds Are Clearing

Hollyn

Through every season
When my heart is fickle
Of this I can be sure
You never change

You let me feel
Just what I need to
So I will cling to
A God who stays

I can see it's real now
Like the clouds are clearing out
This truth will get me through the doubts
You're more than a feeling
More than a feeling

No matter what the world may throw
I see you in the highs and lows
God help me never let you go
Beyond what I'm feeling
I still believe in you

Through every season
When my heart is fickle
Of this I can be sure
You never change

You let me feel
Just what I need to
But I will cling to
A God who stays

I can see it's real now
Like the clouds are clearing out
This truth will get me through the doubts
You're more than a feeling
More than a feeling

No matter what the world may throw
I see you in the highs and lows
God help me never let you go
Beyond what I'm feeling
I still believe in you

Every hour of every day
God, I need you just the same
I know that my emotions can play games
So I'm choosing you

Every hour of every day
God, I need you just the same
I know that my emotions can play games
So I'm choosing you
