

Just Right

Hollyn

Sometimes things spill
Emotions and words
I'm sorry that I couldn't protect you
From how it hurts

But you need to know
Every moment
I've wanted your skin and your bones
And your soul and what comes with it

Cause you came
At just the right time
You came at just the right time
Not a minute too soon
Not a moment too shy

Just the right, just right
Just the right time
Just right, just the right
Just the right time
