

Love

Hollyn

When my head's too far
And my hearts too slow
Would you reach for me?
Would you pull me close?

How many times will I forget?
How many times?

You don't know how not to love me
You don't know how not to love me
You are always thinking of me

When I feel stuck
With no place to go
Can I trust that you
Will bring me home?

How many times will I forget?
How many times?

You don't know how not to love me
You don't know how not to love me
You are always thinking of me

If there is no fear in love
Then what am I hiding from?
If there is no fear in love
Then I'm just letting go
Then I'm just letting go

If there is no fear in love
Then what am I hiding from?
If there is no fear in love
Then I'm just letting go
Then I'm just letting go

You don't know how not to love me
You don't know how not to love me
You are always thinking of me

You are always thinking of me
You don't know

You don't know how not to love me
You don't know how not to love me
You are always thinking of me
