

Another Level

Hollywood Undead

I'm losing my mind today
Yo, what the fuck can I say?
I got these drugs on the way
C-Couple hits then I sway
You better get out the way
Before I spray that AK
Yo, what the fuck can I say?
I'm losing my mind today
Dipped up in that mosh pit
Elbows up, let's bust some lips
Acting like I give a shit
Roll it up, take a hit
Smelling like that Mary J
Hands on that champagne, champagne
Maintain a bad habit like the cocaine
I'm on another level, a level you can't pass
I'm on some other shit, who knows how long it'll last?
My heart is beating out, this shit just creeps up fast
I'm on another level, a level you can't pass

I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
Little bitch
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
Shit
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level

I got a modern persona
Made of cocaine marijuana
Fuck you bitch-ass primadonnas
Gonna b-b-break you down
I got a whole lot of vengeance
Deep inside of every sentence
Yeah, I'm just another menace
Sent to b-b-break you down
And I feel it now, break it down
Every time I bleed 'em out
Sixty, six, six, suffocating every coward
And I should run, but I don't
Let me tell you what I won't
When the devil takes your hand
Let me show you what he wrote
I'm so fucking dope
And I'm cleaner than the bottom of a sack of coke
And these motherfuckers talk, but they always choke
Like they're hanging at the bottom of a six-foot rope
Can't stop now, nope, gotta keep going
You can sober up, I'm gonna keep on blowing
Gotta tear it up, gotta burn it down
But drop that fucking beat now

I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
Little bitch
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
Shit
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level

Here I sit, Sunset and Vine
With an empty bottle and a drinking fine
They won't know it's me 'cause I ain't got time
The cult is here, and I'mma take what's mine
So fuck this club, I'mma rush the line
I'm gonna get kicked out, gonna grab some wine
And at 5 AM, I'mma make the crime
I'mma take a piss off the Hollywood sign

I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
Hahaha
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
Shit
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
I'm on another level, I'm on another level, I'm on another level
