

Enemy

Hollywood Undead

Run, motherfucker, run, motherfucker, I don't need a
Motherfucker, move, motherfucker
What we gotta prove to another?
Do you love to see me suffer?
Feeling like I can't decide
Kneeling at the great divide
Appetite for a war inside
My mind is like a parasite
Run, motherfucker, run, motherfucker, I don't need a
Motherfucker, move, motherfucker
What we gotta prove to another?
Do you love to see me suffer?
You split my soul as I pull you under
As I pull you under

I'm so afraid of me, so what's it gonna be?
Are you my enemy, are you my enemy?
I'm so afraid of me, so what's it gonna be?
Are you my enemy? My own worst enemy

I look in the mirror, and I hate what I see
No, it's not somebody else, it's always fucking with me
No, it won't let me rest, no, it won't let me be Just put a bullet in my head, we'll both go to sleep
Why can't I get along with the voice in my head?
Got my sanity hanging from a thread
I'm the monster that's under the bed
I think we'd both be better off dead
I think we'd both be better off dead
I think we'd both be better off dead

I'm so afraid of me, so what's it gonna be?
Are you my enemy, are you my enemy?
I'm so afraid of me, so what's it gonna be?
Are you my enemy? My own worst enemy

Oh my God, I can't run
I can't hide from the voice inside
Oh my God, I can't run
I can't hide from the voice inside

I'm so afraid of me, so what's it gonna be?
Are you my enemy, are you my enemy?
I'm so afraid of me, so what's it gonna be?
Are you my enemy? My own worst enemy
Are you my enemy? My own worst enemy
Are you my enemy? My own worst enemy
