

Impossible

Holy Holy

Betray, you're kept in solitude
As Jesus wept for the killer Jude
You took all that you could carry
I heard you say a Hail Mary
I believed you were a soldier
You keep your brothers close
But you keep your victims closer, closer

And on the seventh day you didn't rest at all
You're in my side, you're far away
I ask you where you've gone
The sky was unspeakable, unbreakable, untrue
The clouds and scales impossible, impossible like you

It was cold, cold, clothing in the light again
I believed in something
Grow, grow, growing in the Vatican
You remind me that I believed in something□

And on the seventh day you didn't rest at all
You're in my side, you're far away
I ask you where you've gone
The sky was unspeakable, unbreakable, untrue
The clouds and scales impossible, impossible like you

It was cold, cold, clothing in the light again
I believed in something
Grow, grow, growing in the Vatican
You remind me that I believed in something□
