

Send My Regards

Holy Holy

And then, it's late
You said you hate lemonade
You said, my name
Felt just like a war to say
You live behind
A curtain of what you find
Of what you can bring to mind to stall
Of what we can never find we fall
When just to be kind would hold it all

I'm longing for something new
I think that you feel it too
To hide and to leave and to stay
It speaks to me everyday
We don't have to talk about
We don't have to walk it out
Just give my regards to them
Give my regards to everyone

I'm looking for something new
I think that you see it too
To die and to live and to wake
Remember me yesterday
We don't have to talk about
We don't have to walk it out
Just give my regards to them
Give my regards to everyone

To anyone

I'm the reason we're in this mess
You're the reason we'll get through it

I'm the reason we're in this mess
And you're the reason we'll get through it
We'll get through it

You came
You said
Obsession is part of it
I feel it too
Is that 'cause I'm part of you?

You came
You said
Obsession is part of it
I feel it too
Is that 'cause I'm part of you?

You came
You said
Obsession is part of it
Obsession is part of it
Obsession is part of it
I feel it too
Is that 'cause I'm part of you?
Is that 'cause I'm part of you?

Is that 'cause I'm part of you?

Is that 'cause I'm part of you?

I feel it too

Is that 'cause I'm part of you?
