

Shadow

Holy Holy

I woke again
It never ends
The sound came in
It's raining
And lightning struck
And lit you up
I saw you then
Blue for a moment

Ooh I won't wait
Ooh I won't wait

If you go into the shadow
You could leave it all behind
These fantasies seem strange to me though
A horse with a horn just close enough, so
We were the ones to make it out alive
It was all I could do not to take the favour
You were the one trying to make the papers
I couldn't speak you know I never tried

If you go into the shadow
You could leave it all behind
If you go into the shadow
You could leave it all behind
