

The Aftergone

Holy Holy

Do you need it
Do you want it
And you can't find
Where you get it
And you feel it
When you want it
But you can't find
And you can't find
How could you go
Out of the night you came to me
How could you stay
Feeling the things you can't see
Where do you go
It was bright we kissed twice on each cheek
What could I say
And you handed a child to me
What could I do
Out of the night you came to me
How could I know
Leaving the speaking unsaid
Where can I stay
It was right to be quiet don't speak
Who do I show

Where's the aftergone
You say where's the aftergone
Spend a lifetime looking back
When the right time's never that
You say where's the aftergone
You say where's the aftergone
Spend a lifetime looking back
When the right time's never that
Come on and leave it alone
Come on and leave it alone
Come on and leave it alone
Come on and leave it alone

Do you need it
Do you want it
And you can't find
Where you get it
And you feel it
When you want it
But you can't find
And you can't find
How could you go
Out on the town, the streets empty
How could you stay
I've never seen it this dead
Where do you go
We were still for a beat then you said
What could I say

Where's the aftergone

Spend a lifetime looking back
When the right time's never that
Come on and leave it alone
Come on and leave it alone
Come on and leave it alone

If you knew the otherside
If you knew where we would be

Where's the aftergone
When the right time's never that
You say where's the aftergone
When the right time's never that
