Necropolis

Holy Moses

Rotten bodies tortured by shadows Wicked air over lakes of blood New-born children with plague-boils Tearing out the eyes of their mothers

You call it sin he calls it life You praid to god but this is the beast Beware of angels realize The queen is called Babylon

Dead town dead town dead town They try to cry - cry out
But files crawl into their mouths
Rain of acid burns out their eyes
But they won't die in our town of hope
