

Lying Too

Holychild

You and me were never true
You and me were never true
Always, always lying, too
Always, always lying, too

You make it all my fault
You got my name, now hold on
We're always hiding from
The truth, the words, the worst, the realest

These dreams are taking me
Turn my life into magic
It's never what you see
The truth, the words, the worst, the realest

You and me were never true
You and me were never true
Always, always lying, too
Never true, never true

[?] coloring your cold slick face
Caught red handed and it's not fix pay
Up with manners but I know which way
You just gettin' this no hella health
The culprit you ain't better than

You and me were never true
You and me were never true
Always, always lying, too

It's a shame you're so beautiful
Cause you get fucked, oh
Cause you get fucked, oh
Cause you get fucked

It's a shame you're so beautiful
Cause you get fucked, oh
Cause you get fucked, oh
Cause you get fucked
