

Over You

Holychild

(Yeah, turn it up)

I'm a bitch, modern witch
I'm a student in the failure of love
And it hurt, and it burned
But the angels sing to me from above
(And the angels say)

Come on, girl, your life just started
Don't waste time so brokenhearted
If it's done then he's not the one (he's not the one)
Once upon a time you parted
Soon you'll know the ancient garden
You're a flower, you are the sun

I'm so hopeless and over you
Think that you know it too, ooh

I'm a fool, precious jewel
I'm a mountain range that you'll never see
And I try not to cry
Do you know how much your love meant to me?
(And the angels say)

Come on, girl, your life just started
Don't waste time so brokenhearted
If it's done then he's not the one (he's not the one)
Once upon a time you parted

Soon you'll know the ancient garden
You're a flower, you are the sun
(You're the sun!)

I'm so hopeless and over you
Think that you know it too, ooh
I'm so hopeless and over you
Want you to know it too, ooh

I say that it's over
But here I'm still singing
I'm hoping the future
Will bring me some meaning
I say that it's over
But here I'm still singing
I'm hoping the future
Will bring me some meaning

I'm so hopeless and over you
Think that you know it too, ooh
I'm so hopeless and over you
Want you to know it too, ooh

I say that it's over
But here I'm still singing
I'm hoping the future
Will bring me some meaning
I say that it's over

But here I'm still singing
I'm hoping the future
Will bring me some meaning
