

It Looks Good

Home Free

I thought it was just another Friday night
Break the twos, have a beer with the guys
A couple drinks lead to a couple more
And somehow I'm here, on this honkey-tonk floor

Yeah the music's bumpin'
And the party's jumpin'
Oh but all I see is you

Lady, lady you're makin' me crazy, crazy
When you're dancin' to that song
And every time you sing along
And baby, baby I'm thinkin' that maybe, maybe
We should play it one more time
I don't think the boys would mind
Country sounds so sweet from your lips
And it looks good on your hips
It looks good on your hips

I can't believe that I ended up in this bar
It ain't my scene, but girl you are Now I'm wonderin' what to I got to lose
Gonna ask her to dance
Blame it on the booze

Out here Romeo-in'
See how far we goin'
I hope I don't mess up your shoes

Lady, lady you're makin' me crazy, crazy
When you're dancin' to that song
And every time you sing along
And baby, baby I'm thinkin' that maybe, maybe
We should play it one more time
I don't think the boys would mind
Country sounds so sweet from your lips
And it looks good on your hips
It looks good on your hips

Hey girl, let me hear you sing it
You know, I love it when you swing it
Yeah girl, don't you wanna bring it on over this way

I said lady, lady you're makin' me crazy, crazy
And baby, baby I'm thinkin' that maybe, maybe
We should play it one more time,
Yeah play it one more time

Lady, lady you're makin' me crazy, crazy
When you're dancin' to that song
You got me singin' along
Baby, baby I'm thinkin' that maybe, maybe
We should play it one more time
Ooh one last time
Cause country sounds so sweet from your lips
It sounds so sweet comin' from your lips
And it looks good on your hips

And it looks good on your hips
