

Look Inside

Homeshake

Got a feeling this is gonna take a sec
A reminder that i wear around my neck
Matter what i do i manage to forget
Finding things to download on the internet

Take another look inside
And you'll see it
Like the sun is in your eyes
Can't believe it

Maybe i just need to get something to eat
Getting in a car and driving down the street
Beating down onto the glass the light'll split i feel the heat
And i smile because you're sitting next to me

Take another look inside
And you'll see it
Like the sun is in your eyes
Can't believe it

Only drifting with the tide
All in pieces
Just another thing to mind
I don't need it
