

Fight Or Flight

Honey Revenge

Absence of headache
But that must be a mistake oh
Cause how is it I have no pain
If not I must be on my way
There, there

I need a sign yeah I need a message
To get behind and keep me from guessing
Keep me from guessing
To clear my mind and make this less dire
I've got to be the one I desire
Desire

It gets harder to see the light
Bad news triggers my fight or flight
I know, it comes and it goes
If I could sleep through the night
Waking up wouldn't be a fight
I know, it'll come and go

Hearing what the walls say
Takes me to a dark place
And it's become hard to believe
That that the problem isn't in me
Vultures circle their prey
Shadows in the dark take shape
Now what I crave is what I fear
My foundation has disappeared
Disappeared

I need a sign yeah I need a message
To get behind
And keep me from guessing
Keep me from stressing

It gets harder to see the light
Bad news triggers my fight or flight
I know, it comes and goes
If I could sleep through the night
Waking up wouldn't be a fight
I know, it'll come and go

It'll come and go
It'll come and go

It's getting harder to see the light
When bad news triggers my fight or flight
I know, it comes and goes
If I could only sleep through the night
Waking up wouldn't be a fight
I know, it'll come and go

It'll come and go
It'll come and go

If I could only sleep through the night
Waking up wouldn't be a fight

It'll come and go
