Honey Revenge

Don't doubt, don't doubt, mind over matter
Seek out, don't freak out, whatever that means
Seems the glass ceiling is gonna shatter right through me, undo me

You can look, but can't find the meaning
You can drift, you don't need a reason
Expectations, you're people-pleasing, no, no

Is it the risk or the thrill you're after?
What if you tried not to care?
The world moves fast, but you're moving faster
Reinvent the wheel if you dare

Hesitate and you're gonna miss it
Acclimate, try and re-envision
Don't hate the change 'cause it's different, no, oh
Give up your pain and the pretense
The way you hide any weakness
Blind faith might help you to see, look forward

Cause and effect, whatever happens next
We don't get to know, so we'll go with the flow

Is it the risk or the thrill you're after?
What if you tried not to care?
The world moves fast, but you're moving faster
Reinvent the wheel if you dare
Analysis paralysis will only slow you down
On a whim, it's sink or swim, try not to drown

The world moves fast, but you're moving faster
Reinvent the wheel if you dare

Is it the risk or the thrill you're after?
What if you tried not to care?
The world moves fast, but you're moving faster
Reinvent the wheel if you dare
Analysis paralysis will only slow you down
On a whim, it's sink or swim, try not to drown
