

You And I

honeyhoney

Say hallelujah
I never knew ya until now
And I couldn't use you
Bruise you, screw you
Lift and let you down

Cause I play for myself
My rules and my hell raising
Burn me out
So long, but we are now

You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I

If this was then now, honey
I wouldn't be your friend
I would jerk you off and sell you out
Take what I wanted and flaunt it
My heart was haunted with the ghost of all my doubt

Cause I play for myself
My rules and my hell raising
Burn me out
So long, but we are now

You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I

I wouldn't trade, I wouldn't sell
Come high water or hell
I'm gonna love you well
If you were the ground
I'd lay in the dirt
Throw on the rocks and let it hurt
Cause I've been homeless
And a slave to loneliness

You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I

You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I
