

Doesn't Feel That Way

Honeymoon Suite

Drove by your house in the pouring rain
Could've stopped and waited, ain't doing that again
Got a slow burn rising from deep inside
But it won't get the best of me, I've made up my mind

I'm finally letting go
Gonna love who I want
And you'll never know
Free at last

But sometimes
It doesn't feel like that
Still I wonder, yeah I wonder
Where you're lying tonight
I'm out of my mind
I'm afraid to want you back
Don't say you will, I know you won't
It doesn't feel like that

Was it just bad timing, or the look on your face
Maybe falling too hard, before we knew the game
I wanna be sure, but what does that mean?
Now we'll never know, all that could've been

I'm finally letting go
Gonna love who I want
And you'll never know
Free at last

But sometimes
It doesn't feel like that
Still I wonder, yeah I wonder
Where you're lying tonight
I'm out of my mind
I'm afraid to want you back
Don't say you will, I know you won't
It doesn't feel like that
Yeah

Finally letting go, letting go
And you'll never know

Sometimes
It doesn't feel like that
Still I wonder, yeah I wonder
Where you're lying tonight
I'm out of my mind
I'm afraid to want you back
Don't say you will, I know you won't
It doesn't feel like that

Doesn't feel like that
Doesn't feel that way
