

Done Doin Me

Honeymoon Suite

Your pretty eyes, they hide the lies
They've only ever tried, to steal my thunder
You never say just what you mean
You killed the dream and tried to drag me under

Those days, they're gone, not gonna say I'm sorry
So right, but so wrong, I don't wanna hear your story
Won't let you take me down
You're done doin' me now
(Done doin' me now)

Our flame is out, that swagger gone
You're just another, one way ride to nowhere, nowhere
And all of me, that you want back, you'll never have again
Cause I don't go there, go there

Those days, they're gone, not gonna say I'm sorry
So right, but so wrong, I don't wanna hear your story
Won't let you take me down
You're done doin' me now

Those days, they're gone, not gonna say I'm sorry

Those days, they're gone, not gonna say I'm sorry
So right, but so wrong, I don't wanna hear your story
Those days, they're gone, not gonna say I'm sorry
So right, so wrong, I don't wanna hear your story
Won't let you take me down
You're done doin' me now
You're done doin' me now
