

Just Love Somebody

Honeymoon Suite

Days gone by, days get old
I get weary searchin' my soul
Don't know if I'm comin'
Don't know if I'm goin'
Feel like I'm losin' it

Nights get long, drag me down
I get mixed up, lost and never found
'Cause I'm down to my last dime
Runnin' out of precious time
Feel a need comin' on

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my baby now

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my, don't ya want to be my baby now

I've been worn so thin for not workin' it out
In a leaky boat down a river of doubt
'Cause I keep on learnin' the hard way
Gonna wake up and face it one day

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my baby now

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my, don't ya want to be my baby now

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my baby now

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my, don't ya want to be my

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my baby now

Don't ya want to just love somebody
Don't ya want to just need somebody
Don't ya want to be my, don't ya want to be my baby now
