

Not Afraid To Fall

Honeymoon Suite

I've been pushed, to the edge
But I never, ahh, looked down
I've seen dreams, fade away
Uninspired, lost and never found

Don't try and change, my world
Change the way, I work it out
All that I've lost, and all, that I've let go
I'll find, I'll find again

I'm not afraid to fall
Even if I lose it all
When it comes down
I'll keep my feet on the ground
Won't let them hear me cry
I'll punch a hole in the sky
I'm not afraid

Won't hesitate, to make a move
Right or wrong, win or lose
All that I've wanted, and all, that I've tried for Never lose, never lose again

I'm not afraid to fall
Even if I lose it all
When it comes down
I'll keep my feet on the ground
Won't let them hear me cry
I'll punch a hole in the sky
I'm not afraid

Whoa oh, whoa oh, whoa oh

I'm not afraid to fall
Even if I lose it all
When it comes down
I'll keep my feet on the ground
Won't let them hear me cry
I'll punch a hole in the sky
I'm not afraid

Whoa oh, whoa oh, whoa oh
