Honeymoon Suite

She's a seeker of hearts
Refined it to ask you
You try and stay out of her way
But it only breaks your will
But something holds me in her eyes
Just like a trance
With the power to hypnotize you

One by one
She steals my heart
And keeps me on the run
And nothing that you can do
One by one
Beware the thief of hearts

Lost in a maze
Stopped at every turn
Trapped here once again
You'd think that I would learn
I try to tell myself I'm much too strong
But the walls close in
And I know it won't be long till

One by one
She steals my heart
And keeps me on the run

And nothing that you can do
One by one
Beware the thief of hearts

One by one
She steals my heart
And keeps me on the run
And nothing that you can do
One by one
Beware the thief of hearts

But something holds me in her eyes
Just like a trance
With the power to hypnotize you

One by one
She steals my heart
And keeps me on the run
And nothing that you can do
One by one
Beware the thief of hearts (beware)
