

My mind incredibly lost now
'Cause you don't know what you've taken away

Lovin' me was easy, I've given' everything
You never get no reason to get under my skin
Always all about you, forget about me
Take a good look now, it's the last that you'll see

'Cause I take it back
I take it back

You just can't stand the thought of wakin' up alone
So you find somebody, anybody to follow you home
And it always breaks my heart

Lovin' him is easier, he's given' you everything
You're lookin for the reasons to get under his skin
Always all about you, now it's about him
Take a good look now before I begin

To take it back
Yeah I take it back

'Cause you just can't stand the thought of wakin' up alone
So you find somebody, anybody to follow you home
And it always breaks my heart
Breaks my heart

'Cause you just can't stand the thought of wakin' up alone
So you find somebody, anybody to follow you home
Yeah you just can't stand the thought of wakin' up alone
So you find somebody, anybody to follow you home
And it always breaks my heart
It always breaks my heart
It always breaks my heart
