

Tell Me What You Want

Honeymoon Suite

Where are we now...
Where are we now...

This is how it starts
The seams come apart
When did I stop
Stop to be your burning heart
We both waited for
Wanting something more
Then letting days and days go by unanswered for
Where are we now

Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
I can't read your mind, girl
You said it won't be love
Now it's not enough
Where am I in your world
I'm tryin', tryin'
I can't take anymore
Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want

I feel I'm getting played
True colors never fade
Why you talkin'
Talkin' down on me that way
Can't get no rest
I never know what happens next
You're always makin'
Makin' me second guess
Where are we now

Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
I can't read your mind, girl
You said it won't be love
Now it's not enough
Where am I in your world
I'm tryin', tryin'
I can't take anymore
Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want

Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
I can't read your mind, girl
You said it won't be love
Now it's not enough
Where am I in your world

Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
I can't read your mind, girl
You said it won't be love
Now it's not enough
Where am I in your world

I'm tryin', tryin'
I can't take anymore
This fire, fire
Don't burn no more
Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
