

Unpredictable

Honeymoon Suite

Woke up way too early this mornin'
Poundin' in my head
Looked in the mirror where my eyes should be
I saw two slices of red
It's another day gone, another comin' on, another dollar in debt
I reached over and sparked the wrong end of my very last cigarette

I can't get outta my bed
I should be acting my age
I could be totally wrong but
But I really don't think so

I'm bad, I'm back
Lazy, unpredictable
Momma she cried when my daddy kicked me out the door
I'm bad, I'm back
Lazy, unpredictable
I'd like to stick around but I really don't think so

It's not that workin' for a livin'
Is a job too big or small
It's more like hey man, thank you mister
But I don't want the job at all
I'm on mental vacation in my soul and in my mind
What you see is what you get and that is why

I ain't got no plans
I make it up as I go
I could be totally wrong but
I really don't think so

I'm bad, I'm back
Lazy, unpredictable
Momma she cried when my daddy kicked me out the door
I'm bad, I'm back
Lazy, unpredictable
I'd like to stick around but I really don't think so

Really don't think so
I really don't think so
Really don't think so

I'm bad, I'm back
Lazy, unpredictable
Momma she cried when my daddy kicked me out the door
I'm bad, I'm back
Lazy, unpredictable
I'd like to stick around, yeah
I'd like to stick around but I

I'm bad, I'm back
I'm back, I'm back
I'm back
I'm back
I'd like to stick around

I'd like to stick around but I really don't think so
