

gone gone gone

Honne

"Would it be alright today?"

Is there anything I can do to be better
To make you want me more than ever before
I know I haven't been that good lately
And I understand every bit of you hates me

But I didn't know how much I'd miss you, babe
And I didn't know how much I'd care
And I didn't know that I would need you like I do
Until you were gone, gone, gone

Every day hurts like fuck since we broke up
It feels like my heart has been ripped out
And stamped on the floor
I've made mistakes I'll live with forever
I wish we could rewind and start fresh together

'Cause I didn't know how much I'd miss you, babe
But I didn't know how much I'd cry
And I didn't know that I would love you like I do
Until you were gone, gone, gone

Is there anything I can do to be better
Just name anything I can do
I'll be better much better
If you stay forever
