

Imaginary

Honne

I was minding my own business
When you walked on by
I had to do a double take
When you said "hi"
And did anybody witness?
Or was it in my mind?
Someone like you don't talk to Someone like this guy

For a second, I was whisked away
Saw our lives clear as day
We had a son and another on the way
And I'm feeling something
Do you feel the same?

This ain't one of those imaginary tunes
Where imaginary me meets imaginary you
It happened, and it actually came true
It's not another of those made up tunes
Where made up me meets made up you
It happened, and it actually came true

And now I was getting paranoid
It happens all the time
Maybe you mistook me for
Some other guy?
She said "no"
"Let's go!"
I said "where?"
"I don't care", she replied
And I wasn't gonna argue
I just got you in my life

This ain't one of those imaginary tunes
Where imaginary me meets imaginary you
It happened, and it actually came true
It's not another of those made up tunes
Where made up me meets made up you
It happened, and it actually came true

For a second, I was whisked away
Saw our lives clear as day
We had a son and another on the way
And I'm feeling something
Do you feel the same?

This ain't one of those imaginary tunes
Where imaginary me meets imaginary you
It happened, and it actually came true
It's not another of those made up tunes
Where made up me meets made up you
It happened, and it actually came true
It came true
I can't believe it actually came true
